Online purchasing of tickets to shows and museums has made it easier to attend. 100% of respondents chose the Priority Area of "opportunities (work & school)", implying this is a priority area for the city.

Online voting has increased participation. 81.6% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, indicating this is also a priority area.

Online public access to city finances has reduced corruption. 83.9% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, showing this is another important area.

A website or App allows residents to easily give away unwanted items. 76.5% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, suggesting this is a priority area.

The proportion of your day-to-day payment transactions that are non-cash is 13.9% higher. 80% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, indicating this is a priority area.

You feel the availability of online information has increased your trust in authorities. 79.1% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, showing this is a priority area.

Free public wifi has improved access to city services. 77.9% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, suggesting this is another important area.

Online scheduling and ticket sales has made public transport easier to use. 77.8% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, indicating this is a priority area.

A website or App allows residents to effectively monitor air pollution. 78.9% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, showing this is another important area.

Free public wifi has improved access to city services. 77.9% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, indicating this is a priority area.

A website or App allows residents to easily give away unwanted items. 76.5% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, suggesting this is a priority area.

Online reporting of city maintenance problems provides a speedy solution. 79.1% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, indicating this is a priority area.

The proportion of your day-to-day payment transactions that are non-cash is 13.9% higher. 80% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, suggesting this is another important area.

You feel the availability of online information has increased your trust in authorities. 79.1% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, indicating this is another priority area.

Free public wifi has improved access to city services. 77.9% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, showing this is a priority area.

A website or App allows residents to effectively monitor air pollution. 78.9% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, indicating this is another important area.

Online reporting of city maintenance problems provides a speedy solution. 79.1% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, suggesting this is another priority area.

A website or App allows residents to easily give away unwanted items. 76.5% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with the statement, showing this is a priority area.